

Botswana impact expedition

In support of lessons in conservation

Okavango Delta & Boteti River

27.03 - 02.04 2026 | 6 Nights & 7 Days | USD 6450

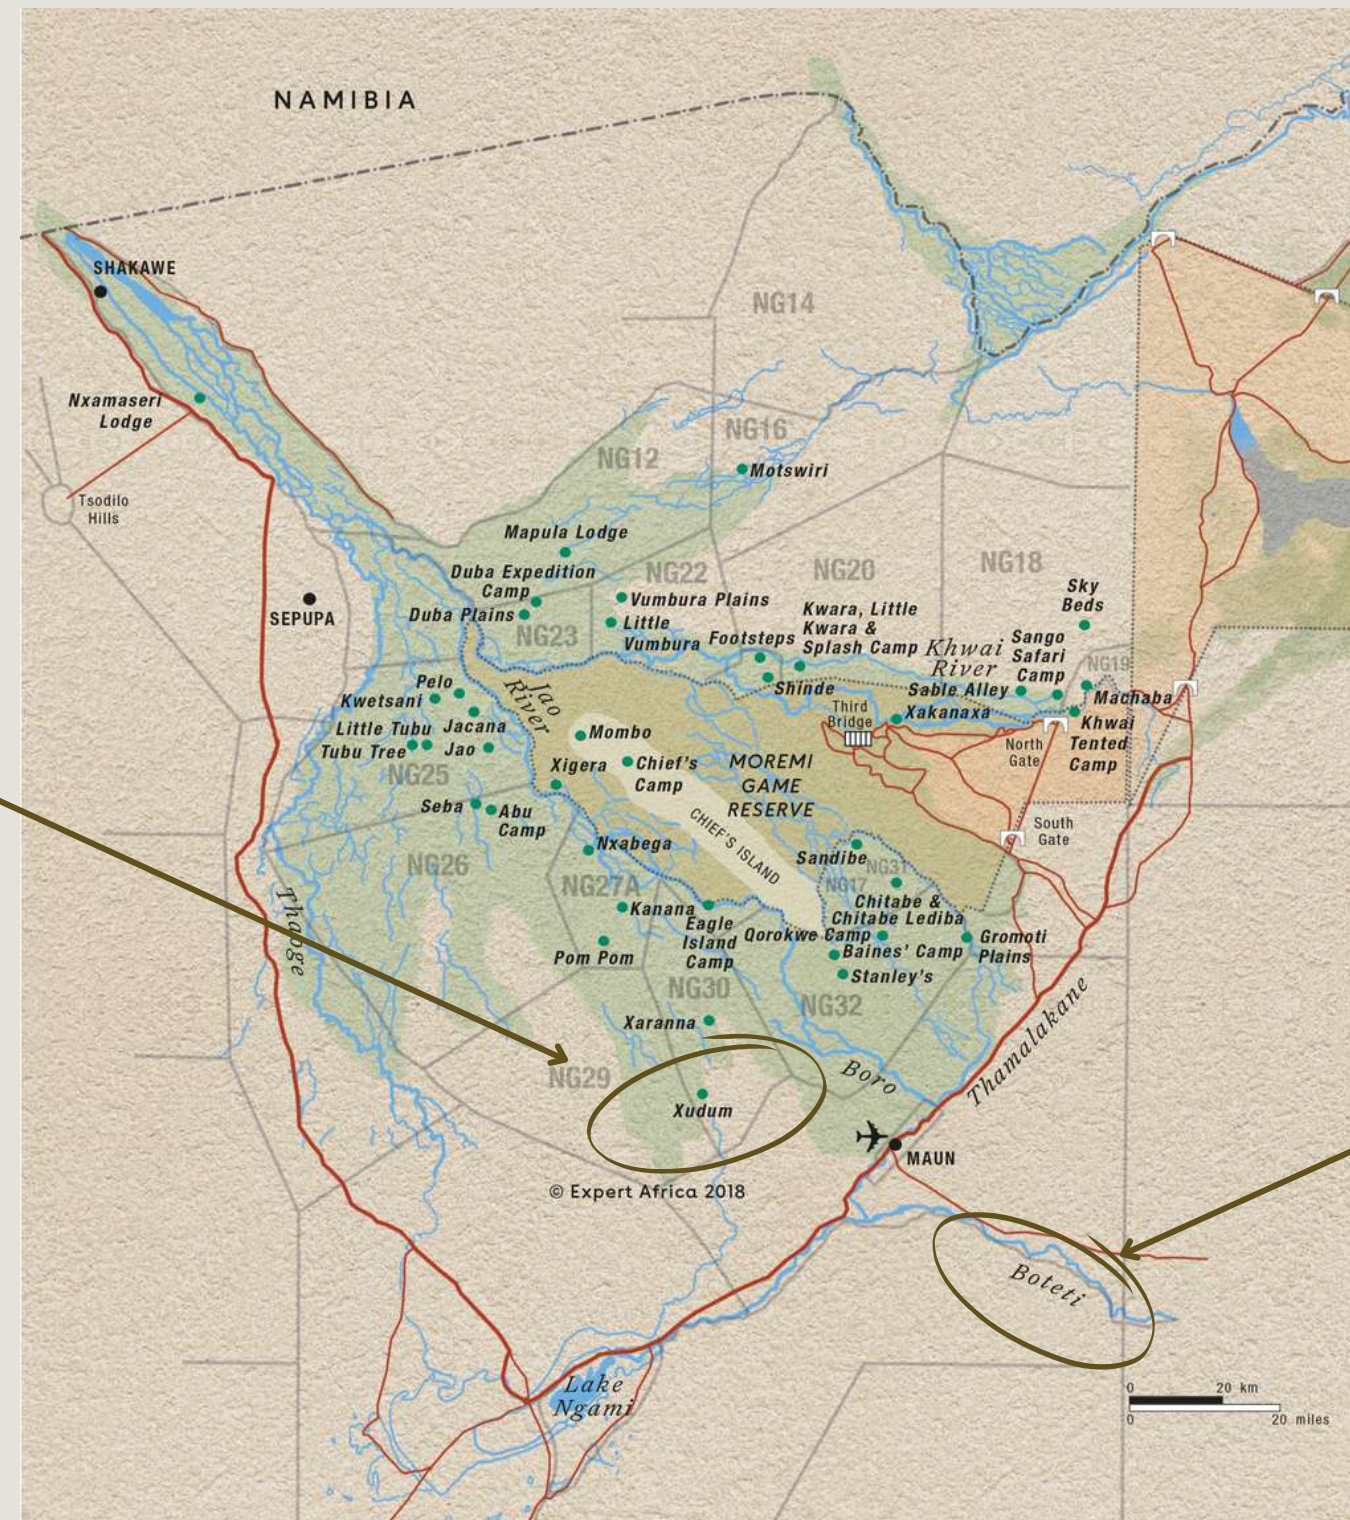

I'm beyond excited to invite you to join me in Botswana in March 2026 for a journey where adventure meets purpose. After years of exploring Africa's wild places, this expedition is my way of sharing with you the magic, the raw beauty, and the stories that have shaped my life in the past couple of years. Together with Actually Africa, we'll immerse ourselves in Botswana's breathtaking wilderness, from the Okavango Delta's hidden waterways to the Boteti River overlooking the Makgadikgadi Pans.

Day 1–4: Meno a Kwena, Boteti

Meno a Kwena

A quick overview

The Safari never stops at Meno a Kwena, a hidden gem of a camp perched on a rocky clifftop above the Boteti River.

The camp was originally used by Southern Africa's legendary explorers, it's refreshingly and stylishly simple. The real treat at Meno is the connection with nature. When you can game view straight from your private veranda, nothing else really matters.

We will have exclusive use of the whole camp!

Day 1 – 4 | 27 – 30 March

You will be collected from Maun International Airport from where we will catch a 1.5h road transfer to Meno a Kwena

Our Activities

Community Involvement Program

Spend the morning in the community with the Lessons in Conservation team, educating young children on the importance of conservation. From our past experiences, we know that the children will benefit, .

Game Drives

After breakfast, set off for a full day of game viewing in Makgadikgadi National Park. Following a 90-minute transfer, explore the park's diverse wildlife, with lunch and tea served in scenic spots along the Boteti River,

Bushman Walks

Small Bushman families from the Ju! Hoansi clan in Xai Xai visit Meno a Kwena to share their nomadic tribe's knowledge. The cultural experience offers insight into their hunter/gatherer lifestyle alongside wildlife, appealing to all ages.

Day 4 – 7: Mokolwane, Okavango Delta

An aerial photograph of the Mokolwane area in the Okavango Delta. The scene features several wooden lodges with corrugated metal roofs, some elevated on stilts. The lodges are surrounded by dense, lush green trees and vegetation. The foreground is a vast, flat, grassy landscape with some scattered trees and shrubs. The sky is clear and blue, suggesting a bright day. The overall atmosphere is serene and natural.

Mokolwane

A quick overview

Mokolwane is a secluded, adventure-filled camp in the remote Okavango Delta's Xudum concession. Surrounded by Mokolwane palms and 200,000 hectares of pristine wilderness, it's home to abundant wildlife, including one of Africa's highest leopard densities. As the only camp for miles, it offers unmatched solitude and an authentic safari experience.

We will have exclusive use of the whole camp!

Day 4 – 7 | 31 – 02 March / April

After a scenic helicopter flight we will be collected from the helicopter landing spot and driven to Mokolwane

Our Activities

Mokoro Trips

This trip can be done at any time of the day but it's particularly good in the morning, it lasts around 2 hours. The trip will depend upon the river level,

Game Drives

The diverse landscape is scattered with herds of elephant and large numbers of predators. With virtually no other people around you will enjoy remarkable game drives in the company of exceptional guides.

Bird Watching

Tick off a vast number of species unique to the Okavango Delta such as the Slaty Eagle, the Pel's Fishing Owl and the African Skimmer.

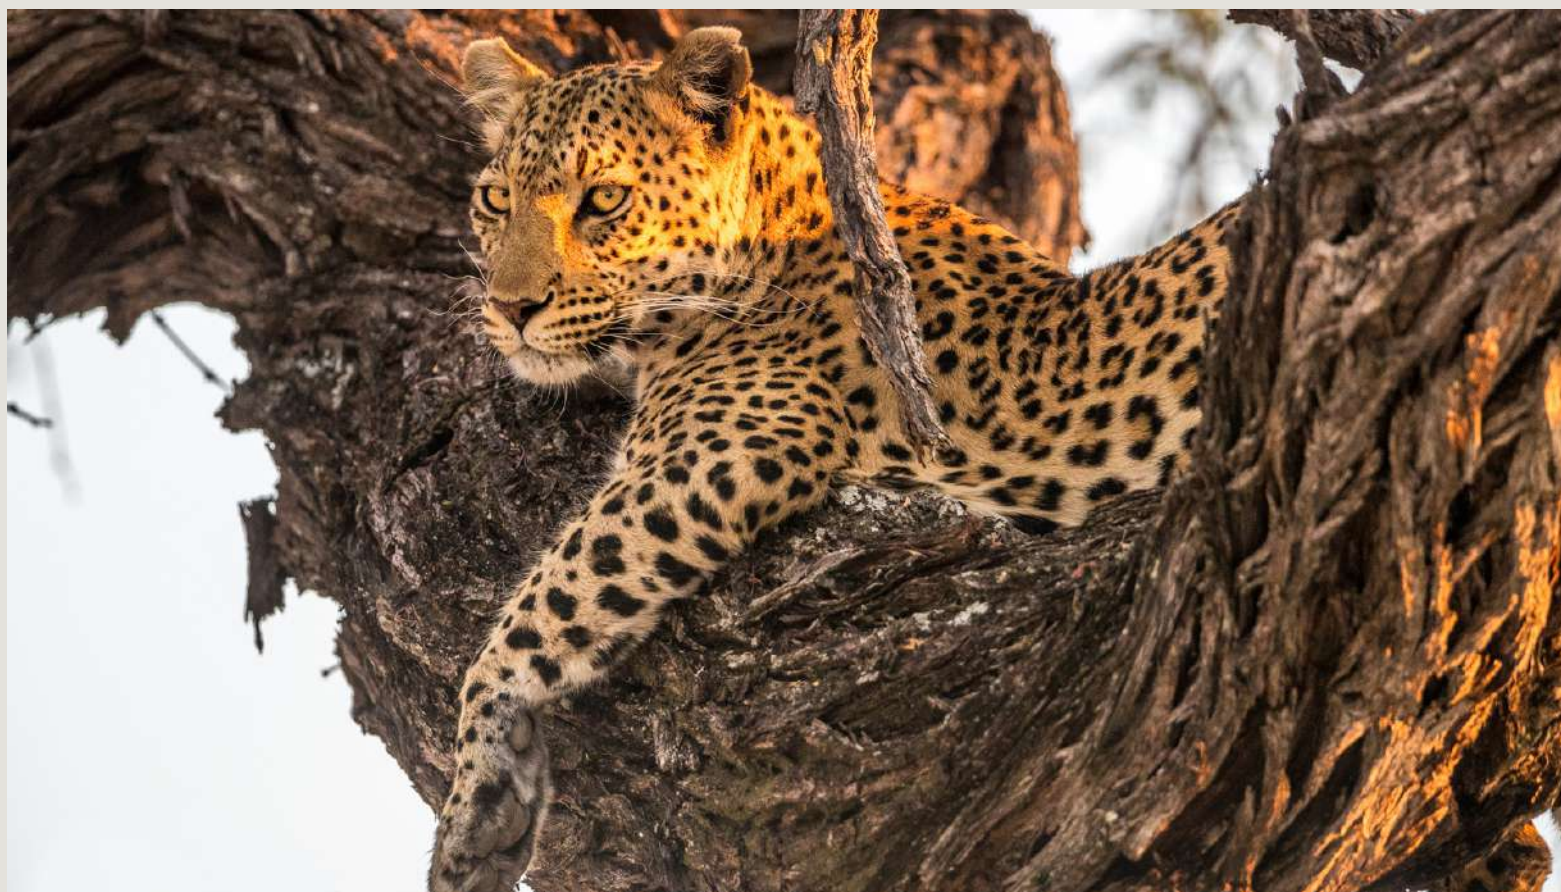

Two highlights at Mokolwane

Our transfer to and from Mokolwane will be by helicopter. A scenic flight over the Okavango Delta is a unique experience, offering breathtaking aerial views of its vast wetlands, winding waterways, and diverse wildlife.

Mokolwane is leopard country. These territorial cats love it here so much, that the area boasts the third highest density recorded anywhere in Africa. Mokolwane is a special little camp, big on adventure. And being the only camp for miles around, a great place to breath in the stillness and solitude.
